Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

September and October are traditionally a time in the church year when congregations engage in stewardship series. In these months, the council is starting to look at the budget for the upcoming year. The various ministry groups and committees are beginning to consider what their needs for the next twelve months will be. People in the pews are looking at their own finances and thinking about how they can best share their resources with their church and other organizations to have the greatest impact for the kingdom of God. Here at Peace, we are entering into that stewardship season again.

In past years, we have taken a number of approaches to stewardship. We've done the Pony Express a few times, with varying success. We've done a worship/sermon series. We've done a simpler mailing to congregation members. We've had consecration meals, in which we have celebrated together the success of another year of ministry. Last year, right around this time, we had our 75th anniversary celebration of Peace Lutheran Church, which gave us a number of opportunities to reflect on the ways that the congregation has followed God's call over the years.

This year, the Abundant Life Committee and I are developing another stewardship program. We will present a pamphlet similar to last years, which will share important financial information from the last year of Peace's ministries. We'll include a Time and Talent Survey, similar to the one we sent out a few years ago. As always, there will be an Estimate of Giving card we will ask your family to fill out and return to the church office. Our hope is that this will continue to help us all intentionally consider how we can best put our resources toward serving God and the kingdom.

Speaking of using resources we share to serve God's kingdom, I'd like to share with you a few ways I have seen Peace participating in the work God has called us to in the first three quarters of 2025.

You may remember that we had nearly a $50,000 budget surplus in 2024. At our Annual Meeting in January, the congregation decided to put 50% of this surplus into savings and distribute the other 50% to a number of local, national, and international ministry efforts. What an amazing show of stewardship, as we blessed others out of our blessing!

Alongside that surplus gift, Peace continues to give 6% of its undesignated income to other organizations through our quarterly gifts. So far, we have distributed over $6,000 to ministry partners through these gifts. (Q3 gifts will be determined in October and Q4 will be determined in the new year.)

Peace Quilters News!

The quilters at Peace meet each Wednesday morning, 9:00 a.m. to noon, in the basement at Peace. If you are interested in quilting or learning how to tie quilts, come and join us. We take a break for coffee and a visit around 10:30. The quilts you have seen displayed in the basement reception hall are examples of our handiwork. This past year we made 183 quilts which you saw displayed on the church pews at the beginning of May. Three have been given to community causes and 180 have just been sent to Lutheran World Relief for distribution around the world where there is a need.

This is an important ministry the Members at Peace are sharing with the greater community.

Peace Lutheran Financial Update

	Income	Expenses	Difference
August 2025	$28,201.30	$22,569.14	5,632.16
2025 Year-To-Date	$164,491.20	$173,477.44	-8,986.24

While July 2025 was the lowest giving July since 2019, August 2025 was the highest giving August in the same amount of time. Thank you to everyone who helped us make a large step in making up our year-to-date deficit. As mentioned in the pastor's article, we are in very good financial standing at the moment, and this is because you continue to give to the missions and ministries of Peace Lutheran Church.

Stewardship letters will be in the mail in the first few weeks of October, and we hope to have your time and talent surveys, as well as your estimate of giving cards back by the beginning of November. Please continue to prayerfully consider the ways that your family can support Peace Lutheran Church, through financial gifts, volunteering for various ministries, or serving on council or committees.

WORSHIP THEMESOctober 4&5

A little faith goes a long way is Jesus' point in the gospel. A mustard seed's-worth of faith has miraculous potential. The patience, tenacity, and endurance required for the life of faith are the blessings received in holy baptism, holy communion, and the word read and proclaimed in this assembly. Anticipate them. Receive them with thanksgiving.

Habakkuk 1:1-4, 2:1-4, Psalm 37:1-9, 2 Timothy 1:1-14, Luke 17:5-10

October 11 & 12

It's a miracle! Multiple miracles! The waters of holy baptism have healed us. The body and blood of Jesus in holy communion have made us clean. We have died with Christ and been raised with him. For all this we have returned to offer thanks. From this place we are sent on our way rejoicing to share the good news.

2 Kings 5:1-3,7-15c, Psalm 111, 2 Timothy 2:8-15, Luke 17:11-19

October 18 & 19

Pray always. Do not lose heart. This is Christ's encouragement in the gospel today. Wrestle with the word. Remember your baptism again and again. Come regularly to Christ's table. Persistence in our every encounter with the divine will be blessed.

Genesis 32:22-31, Psalm 121, 2 Timothy 3:14, 4:5, Luke 18:1-8

October 25 & 26

Genuine repentance and pretentious piety stand in stark contrast in the gospel and all around us. All creation stands in need of God's forgiveness. Keep the faith. God's people shall be accounted righteous for Jesus' sake. Our God is merciful to sinners. For this we worship and glorify God forever.

Jeremiah 14:7-10, 19-22, Psalm 84:1-7, 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18, Luke 18:9-14

Family Promise guests will be at Peace October 5~12.

One of my favorite children's stories is "Stone Soup." (My favorite of them all is Pete Seeger's "Some Friends to Feed.")

There are many versions of this story, different cultures have their own twist to it. The story tells about some strangers who come into a village. They are very hungry and begin to knock on doors to see if anyone has food to share. No one does. So, they come up with a plan to teach the villagers how to make stone soup. "Bring what you've got. Put it in the pot, we're making stone soup" they shout. The people begin to bring a little of what they have for the soup and it all goes into the pot in the village square. The strangers have the mysterious, delicious stone to add. When it's all cooked and done, they all enjoy the best soup the villagers have ever had (and they made new friends too!). And there's enough for everyone.

We always had a Stone Soup party every fall at preschool. The kids would bring food from home. We all worked at chopping up the vegetables (mostly vegetables, but there was definitely a variety of food!), we made butter and cornbread. And we added our special stone to the soup (yep, we washed it!). We invited family and friends to come and enjoy the story and the soup.

On the day of the party, we ate the soup, cornbread, and butter. Just like the villagers, people said it was the best soup they'd ever had! What made it so good? We always laughed and said, "the stone, of course!"

But was it really the stone? I don't think so. It was all the special food the kids brought, the work they did to cut the food up, make the butter and cornbread. It was the invitation to come and join us! It was the smiles on their faces when they shared the soup with their family and friends.

It's the same with Family Promise. We each bring our unique gifts to the program. Maybe you will feed our guests dinner, or spend time playing with the kids, or maybe you can help on Sunday morning after church to make their rooms cozy and warm or maybe the next Sunday wash their bedding. And with each gift, we welcome them to Peace (and maybe make new friends). It all works together to make "the best week some of the guests have ever had."

So..." bring what you've got. Put it in the pot. We're making stone soup!"

We hope you can help with Family Promise, October 5 ~ 12 (and if not this time, maybe another time!). The sign-up sheet is in the narthex. Or give one of us a call if you have questions.

PRAYER VENTURES

October

1 Pray for scientists, pastors, science teachers and others who explore the intersection of faith and science through the Lutheran Alliance for Faith, Science and Technology. Ask for God's wisdom to discern the benefits, consequences and use of technology to promote the well-being of humankind, communities and creation.

2 Ask the Spirit to guide and bless members of the ELCA Church Council as they support the work and mission of the ELCA churchwide organization. Give thanks to God for their faith, gifts and diligence.

3 Remember in prayer youth and adult leaders gathering for the ELCA Gathering Expedition retreat at Lutherhill camp in La Grange, Texas. Pray that their week-end together will nurture faith, stir questions and discussions, and connect them more deeply with one another — siblings in Christ who find strength and nourishment in community.

4 Today the Rev. Yehiel Curry is being installed as presiding bishop of our church. Give thanks to God for faithful leaders who inspire and guide our church to be passionate, creative and tireless in proclaiming the gospel and doing God's work in the world.

5 Pray for the Spirit to guide and inspire those gathered for the Conference of Bishops as they worship and study together, advise the presiding bishop on churchwide planning and ecumenical relations, review proposals for the ELCA Church Council, and work on matters related to rostered ministers.

6 "The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith!' The Lord replied, 'If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea," and it would obey you'" (Luke 17:5-6). Praise God for judging us not by the depth of our faith but through a lens of love, forgiveness and concern for us as treasured children.

7 Give thanks for ELCA Youth Ministry and the ELCA Youth Ministry Network. Pray for their faith formation programs, leadership training events and resources for youth, and for leaders serving in children, youth and family ministries

8 In the first eight months of this year, there were 292 mass shootings and more than 28,400 gun-related injuries and deaths (gunviolencearchive.org). Pray for those who suffer grief and trauma due to gun violence or accidental shootings. Ask God to help us be steadfast and wise in our advocacy to end gun violence and our care for those impacted.

9 Give thanks for our siblings in Christ — near and far — with whom we join in proclaiming the good news of Jesus Christ, who frees us from the bondage of death, gives life, renews our hope and sets us on a path of compassion, service and generosity.

10 Pray for musicians and worship leaders participating in the Music that Makes Community retreat in Albuquerque, N.M., that they will sharpen their skills for leading songs and instrumental music in faith communities.

11 Ask God to bless the work of farmers, ranchers and agricultural workers. Give thanks for their vocations and the diverse roles they play in bringing food to our tables and around the world.

12 In the Gospel of Luke, when 10 men with a skin disease approach Jesus in search of mercy and healing, Jesus never hesitates. Give thanks to God for attending to our needs and tribulations, and for the love and forgiveness that flow to us through Jesus Christ.

13 Indigenous Peoples' Day Today we remember and honor Indigenous people — our neighbors and siblings in Christ. Lift up prayers of gratitude for the cultures, traditions, spirituality and history of Indigenous people and tribal nations. Ask the Spirit to guide and enrich our lives together, helping us remain faithful to our shared journey toward truth and healing in the church and society.

14 "I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation" (Psalm 111:1). Give thanks to the Spirit, who gathers us together in community to praise God, reflect on the word of God, celebrate the sacraments, respond to the needs of our neighbors and encourage one another in doing God's work in the world every day.

15 Give thanks and praise for God's inexhaustible grace, which liberates us from despair when we feel ill-equipped to deal with our troubles.

PRAYER VENTURES

October

16 Give thanks and pray for those in our communities who serve in law enforcement, that they will be safe, affirmed in their vocations and led by the Spirit to exercise justice, fairness and wisdom in their duties.

17 Pray for ELCA campus ministries, that their reach and impact will grow among students, faculty, staff and others through worship, study, fellowship and service. Give thanks for the work of Lutheran Campus Ministry Network, which strengthens advocating for ministry on college and university campuses.

18 Luke, Evangelist Ask the Spirit to help us express our faith, share the good news of Jesus Christ with confidence and enthusiasm, and invite others to join the community of siblings in Christ who do God's work in the world.

19 Ask God to grant justice to those who suffer discrimination and inequity, and ask the Spirit to help us be bearers of God's justice in the world.

20 Remember in prayer our ministries in seven countries in Asia and the Pacific region. Pray for ELCA Global Mission personnel and Young Adults in Global Mission who work alongside companion churches to spread the gospel, equip leaders, teach, respond to community needs and strive for justice.

21 "The time is coming when people will not put up with sound teaching, but, having their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths" (2 Timothy 4:3-4). Pray that the Spirit will give us insight and guidance when we struggle to distinguish God's truth from the falsehoods that lead us astray.

22 Ask God to strengthen and sustain those who work for peace between nations, including diplomats, negotiators, religious leaders and heads of state. Pray that they will find new ways to work through impasses, implement just and lasting peace agreements, and address the needs of those impacted by war and civil conflict.

23 Pray for congregations going through challenging times, that they will find resources and assistance to renew their sense of mission and their resolve to be God's loving presence in their communities.

24 Pray for Presiding Bishop Yehiel Curry, that his faith, his ministry experiences and the counsel of his siblings in Christ will inspire wisdom and equip him for guiding our church and its leaders to be persistent and creative in proclaiming God's restorative love.

25 Ask God to help us create safe and uplifting communities of faith where all people can gather to hear the word of God, share the good news of Jesus, celebrate God's amazing love and promises, care for one another and encourage one another to follow Christ in our daily lives.

26 Reformation Sunday Give thanks for our living, growing and changing church, which asserts its identity and purpose in the good news of Jesus Christ — God's free gift of grace and new life for the world

27 Pray for refugees and immigrants in our country and throughout the world, that they will be welcomed by communities and churches that accompany them through the challenges of rebuilding their lives.

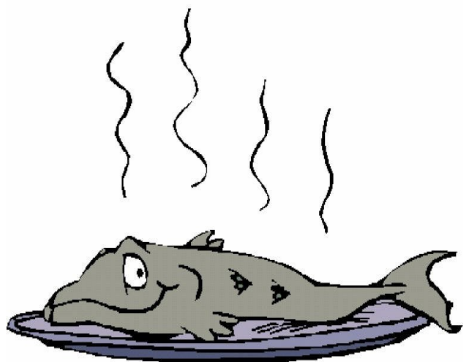

28 Pray for Racial Justice Ministries of the ELCA and give thanks for a gospel proclaiming that Christ's church is for all people. Ask God for the courage to confront racism and seek fairness and justice in the church and society.

29 Lift up prayers of thanksgiving and joy that in God we find strength, life, happiness, hope and an eternal home.

30 Remember in prayer students who experience difficulties in school — academic, emotional, physical or social. Pray that they will receive care and support from teachers, counselors and peers so that they will grow confident and thrive.

31 Pray for the leaders, voting members and others gathering for the assembly of the Allegheny Synod, that the Spirit will strengthen, guide and inspire them as they reflect on the mission of the church, choose leaders and encourage one another to proclaim the gospel and serve our neighbors in need.
