*We understand that many children uses cellphones to tell time, take pictures, and stay in touch. If your child does bring a cellphone we ask that they use it respectfully. This means not using headphones and not using a cellphone during large group or station time unless okayed by the station leader. If a cell phone is used inappropriately Peace Lutheran will hold onto it and release it at the end of the day. If other electronics (such as tablets) are brought Peace Lutheran will hold onto them and release them at the end of the day.
